

Greek and Roman Science & Technology

Instructor: Professor Dillery

Course: CLAS 2559 - Greek and Roman Science & Technology

Time: MWF 2:00PM - 2:50PM

This course will focus on the development of Greek science from the Archaic to the Roman periods (700 BC—AD 300). Topics that will be examined in detail will include medicine and disease, biology, physics, mathematics, and technology and invention. There will be a midterm, final, and final paper.