To read the Latin and Greek authors in their original is a sublime luxury; and I deem luxury in science to be at least as justifiable as in architecture, painting, gardening, or the other arts.... And it is an innocent enjoyment. I thank on my knees him who first directed my early education for having put into my possession this rich source of delight; and I would not exchange it for anything which I could then have acquired, and have not acquired since.

Thomas Jefferson, 1800
